DECL EXCISE

Alec Home asked me to come down and see him tonight. He has lately returned from accompanying the Prime Minister to Bonn. From there, he had gone on with Kit Steel to Berlin, and been much impressed by his visit.

On the lighter side, he said that after his trip to Bermuda, he had had a family shoot at Douglas. On each of two days they had killed over 100 cock pheasants, and quite a quantity of geese. He is a ~~really attractive and intelligent man.~~

I gave a lunch at the house today for Colonial Minister Maudling, Hugh Fraser, and Ambler Thomas, Assistant Under Secretary of State in charge of West Indian Departments.

John Service, our Consul at Liverpool, came to see me this afternoon. His career was substantially ruined years ago as a result of his service in China. As I recall it, he had a collision with Pat Hurley, our Ambassador there, who accused

DECLASSIFIED EXCISE EO 12356

February 1, 1962 - Thursday

Graham Martin came to see me this morning. He is on his way home from Geneva. He is to be replaced there by Roger Tubby, Assistant Secretary of State for Public Affairs, for whom a post abroad had to be found. Graham does not know what his next assignment will be, although he wishes to remain in the Foreign Service. He is a man of extraordinary competence, and I strongly urge him to do so, provided an offer made to him would give him real play for his abilities.

I stopped in at the briefing for the "House and Home" group, who are here under the auspices of TIME-LIFE. The members present were:

Joseph P. McMurray, Chairman, Federal Home Loan Bank Board
Robert Bush, President, Des Moines Federal Home Loan Bank
Howard Edgerton, President and Chairman of Board, Coast Federal Saving & Loan Association, Los Angeles
Perry Prentice, Editor, House & Home Magazine
Robert Gerholtz, Minneapolis, President, National Association of Home Builders
John De Laittre, President, Farmer Mechanics Savings Bank, Minneapolis.

I talked to them about the British economic situation.

The Ambassador of Nepal called on me.
